

PASTOR TERMS OF CALL

Policy Statement

The Presbytery of San José requires that terms of call for all pastors (including transitional pastors) include the following categories: salary and housing, auto allowance, study leave, Board of Pensions dues, and vacation. It is the responsibility of each church to make it possible for all ordained staff to find and afford decent and appropriate housing reasonably close to the church. Additionally, the Presbytery requires that each church comply with federal, state and local government tax, vacation and salary requirements.

Each pastor's terms of call shall be reviewed annually by the session and approved by the congregation. After congregation approval, the terms of call shall be forwarded to the Committee on Ministry for review of compliance with this policy. All terms of call shall comply with the minimum requirements referenced in this policy for the entire calendar year at issue regardless of the church's fiscal year, budget cycle, or congregational meeting schedule.

Rationale

The Presbytery of San José provides this information in order to guide congregations in fulfilling their commitment to pay fairly the ministers who serve them and to enhance communication between the church and its pastor(s) concerning the issue of compensation and benefits

APPENDIX A

Components for the Minimum Terms of Call

The minimum Terms of Call consist of the following components:

- Minimum Salary and Housing: For a given year, the amount in Appendix B from the preceding year, will be automatically indexed by the Social Security Administration Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA). See <https://www.ssa.gov/cola/>. The actual housing provided shall take into account the particular minister's reasonable needs and shall, at a minimum, provide a two-bedroom residence within a reasonable driving distance of the church or an equivalent cash allowance.
- Effective Salary: Typically comprised of Salary and Housing. The Board of Pensions may call for inclusion of other compensation in Effective Salary. Refer to The Board of Pensions publication "Understanding Effective Salary." See <https://www.pensions.org/file/what-we-offer/benefits-guidance/forms-documents/Documents/pln-103.pdf/>.
- Board of Pensions: The yearly designated dues (medical, pension, and death and disability) for the pastor shall comply with the current Board of Pensions requirements. (www.pensions.org)
- Spouse and Family Medical Coverage: The pastor's spouse and immediate family shall have health insurance coverage through either the spouse's separate employment, the Board of Pensions, Covered California, Medicare, or another public or private insurance program.
- Auto Allowance
- Study Leave: Minimum requirements are 14 calendar days per calendar year and $1,000 (reimbursed expenses); refer to PS-6, Use of Study Leave, for additional requirements.
- Vacation –30 calendar days. The 30 days includes weekends but not federal government holidays. A pastor accrues vacation at a rate of 2.5 days per month as of the first day of each month unless a church session approves a different vacation accrual schedule. With session approval, a pastor may take vacation days before having sufficient accrued days. Session shall have a mechanism to track accrued and taken vacation days and report them to the pastor.
The maximum amount of accrued vacation is 45 days unless a church session approves a different maximum amount (but not less than 30 days). At dissolution of a pastoral relationship, reimbursement for unused but accrued vacation is calculated by multiplying the effective salary by the number of unused accrued vacation days and dividing by 365.

Santa Clara $121,157

Santa Cruz $101,536
